JOHN N. RODOCK

Experience

John N. Rodock centers his Ober|Kaler law practice on tax and estate planning for individuals and the representation of tax-exempt organizations. A member of the firm's Estates and Trusts and Tax Groups, John advises clients on estate planning, income taxation, estate and gift taxation, elder law, trust administration and probate matters, and trust and estate controversies.

As general counsel to several large and small nonprofit organizations, John collaborates with his colleagues at Ober|Kaler to provide tax-exempt groups with a broad range of legal services, including matters involving corporate law, employment law, government contracts, real estate, employee benefits, intellectual property and tax law.

John's work approach is service oriented. He prides himself in being responsive to his clients' needs and giving every client personal attention.

An active member of national and local bar associations, John helps lead a number of civic and community nonprofits. He currently serves on the board of the Falls Church, Va., Chamber of Commerce, the Mary Riley Styles Public Library Foundation Trust and the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame.

John is a participating member of the professional service groups NOVA Senior Alliance and Divorce Resource Network.
